ORDER OF SERVICE

Nothing can fill the gap when we are away from those we love, and it would be wrong to try to find anything. We must simply hold out and win through. That sounds very hard at first, but at the same time it is a great consolation since leaving the gap unfilled preserves the bonds between us. It is nonsense to say that God fills the gap. He does not fill it but keeps it empty so that our communion with each other may be kept alive even at the cost of pain.

- Dietrich Bonhoeffer

PRELUDE

“Battle Hymn of the Republic”

Julia Ward Howe (1819–1910)

Performed by Richard Allen Williams and Victor Brogna

WELCOME AND OPENING SENTENCES

LITANY OF PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

The Reverend Allan B. King

The congregation standing

Almighty God, in whom we live and move and have our being, from whom we come and to whom we return, and with whose providence and grace we are daily blessed;

We give you thanks, O God.

For families that nurtured us in our younger years and sustain us in the present;

We give you thanks, O God.

For teachers who sparked our imaginations and honed our minds; for administrators who, often unsung and unknown, enabled the work of others; for classmates who shared our successes and defeats;

We give you thanks, O God.

For communities that enrich our individuality and myriad complexity;

We give you thanks, O God.

For lively hopes of a university that will know equality and peace;

We give you thanks, O God of peace.

For the vision of a creative harmony of humanity with your universe;

We give you thanks, O God of creation.

For the promise that every spirit is known and enfolded
by your spirit;

We praise you, O God of infinite love. Amen, and yet again, Amen.

LESSON FROM SCRIPTURE

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756–1791)

Performed by the Class of 1957 Choir

Conducted by Emily Romney

LESSON FROM SCRIPTURE

Micah 6:6–8

The Reverend Michael S. Robertson

COLLECT AND RESPONSES

The Reverend Allan B. King

Almighty God, who orders all things that are, yet does not will the suffering of any, gives us patience to understand the mystery of untimely death, endurance to undergo the suffering of those moments, and insight to accept the circumstances of those who do violence against themselves. We pray especially for those near and dear to those who die. May wives, husbands, and children especially be given strength according to your comforting.

Amen.

O God, hear our prayer.

And let our cry come to you.

O God, the source of goodness and life, we pray for forgiveness for our failure to use what we have to build your city, for wasting our time and not enjoying creation. Pardon our complicity in the death of others, our weakness in doing right, our impotence in the face of evil. Help us be life-giving, generous with each moment, amending the times, prodigal in sensitivity, abundant in justice, through the power that works among us to the fulfillment of our histories according to your good purpose.

Amen.

O God, hear our prayer.

And let our cry come to you.

POEM READING

“In Blackwater Woods”
Written by Mary Oliver
Read by Joan McLane

ORIANA CONSORT

“Lux Aeterna”
Composed by Edward Elgar (1857–1934)
Arranged by John Cameron (b. 1944)
Conducted by Walter Chapin

HOMILIES

The Reverends Allan B. King and Michael S. Robertson

READING OF THE KADDISH

Martin S. Gordon

THE CLOSING COLLECTS

The Reverend Michael S. Robertson

O Lord, support us all day long, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging and a holy rest, and peace at last. Amen.
